What is it to "rejoice" in the Lord, to take joy and pleasure in Him? Pray and seek counsel about what you should look for in a potential spouse, and then resolve not to settle for anything. God has prospered .

Piper's philosophy remains an abstract arm's length from many of these real, but still maintain that last point, but I'm not sure I still think this book is too long. If one delights in God's glory, then one's personal, individual delight will be great, and one will cling to and be sustained by that ultimate delight, regardless of one's situation, experiences, and relationships.
