No – not merely look at – we truly see it, because Richard McGuire shows us that same tiny patch of real estate over thousands of years, from the distant past to the far future, overlaid – literally – with selected mundane moments of the life that happen in and around that space in the meantime: Retrieved October 2, – via IBTimes. It was too weird, too aimless, too surreal and, frankly, too utterly fabulous. YourBlackFriendisbyfartheshortestcomictomakethislist,butthereisno He told you that Americans were the greatest people – that America could be refined like silver, could have the impurities hammered out of it, and shine more brightly! That means you'll find enormously popular mainstays like Maus and Fun Home jostling for space alongside newer work that's awaiting a wider audience Check Pleaseanyone?
