The Greeks longed for this incipient release from the physical body, however, Christianity, like Judaism, asserts that we will always have a bodily expression both believers and unbelievers, cf. We cannot bear the name of Christ with authenticity unless we are willing to represent him as his ambassadors, as inadequate as we may feel we are for this task. Compare your subject divisions with the five modern translations.

Are you living for yourself, or are you living for Jesus? The reason that God calls us to love Him is that He loves us. Therefore we make it our aim, whether present or absent, to be well pleasing to Him. The Net Bible also prefers option 2, "put on. Daily Bible Reading Plans x. God the Father raised Jesus cf. The question is what kind of salt and light. This is an aorist passive participle with an unexpressed agent.
