Carrie - January 30, Subject: Doyle's writing style has noticeably improved since the prior short story collection, and the plot ideas, which had grown quite stale, are generally more creative although there is still a heavy reliance on "someone's past comes back to haunt. Usually he comes off as seemingly callous.

He has a logical mind, it's sometimes hard for him to let soft emotions come. So, those are some of my favorite moments of The Return of Sherlock Holmes.
