Phillips is always a believable character. A pleasure to read. Refresh and try .

Pollards attempt at trying to get the reader to be excited about the next chapter.

This kept me going till the end. Still it is only first novel and the epilogue points to a sequel set in the American Civil War so I might be tempted to follow on the adventures of Pollards hero He is going about his duties and cutting up corpses and parts thereof for the benefit of his medical students when a very energetic and familiar looking, middle-aged gentleman introduces .

However, other than IK Brunel, none of the other historical figures play much

I then changed my mind because it should be interesting all the way through not just on occasional bursts. Brunel had been taking .
