I am absolutely passionate about learning and teaching – through connecting with others, and helping them connect with themselves and others as. I work in IT for over 30 years. But knowing that even if it is only one life, it will be worth it, for this is what I want to help Mothers, especially those that are in abusive relationships, or have escaped abuse to be able to find something that they love doing which is hard for them after the psychological abuse, the put downs and name calling. Georgia Posted at Mika Okusa Vancouver, BC. All it takes to change the world is one generation. The thought terrifies me, especially as I have other band members to rely on as well as myself!
