I have tried various things from reading about his hobbies to aloud reading to trying to make it fun. So think about what your child loves to. More on this topic for: November 15, at 8: Have you discovered a great way to motivate your child to read? Ideally, children at this age have learned how to read, and are now reading to learn. Reading aloud isn't the only way to encourage kids to read. Someone else expressing interest in what they read is very motivating for many. I wonder learning to read and write is so challenging!
