Withthefascinationsofyouthandtheequalfas-cinationsofage.With a rush of burning desires, I turn your world, as I touch you, into a ball of fire, Where our sweat begins to fall, and the degrees of the room creep higher and higher, I slip off your bra, and proceed to strip you from the rest of your attire, As there's a look in your eyes that's electric as a live wire, The grip of my hands around the curves of your frame become tighter and tighter, Hearing with thuds of the baseboard beginning to Curves and Angles: Poems at the wall—I treat this moment ever so dire, Where I pull you in close—in this room full of yearning fire, And make love to you— With my body full of rushing and Curves and Angles: Poems desires. The soul's realization and determination still in- heriting.
