He earns at most 30 francs, half as much as he made when he was an honest man, and will probably finish his days in the Cayenne penal colony. Pro- 'Romantic' 'modern', 'liberal' etc: None of the reduced versions and copies is dated. He was dressed in a peculiar white flannel shirt with mauve silk fringes. The years were crucial for Wols. Ever since the Great Paris Flood of Fred had been living on the streets.

They travelled to Barcelona and Ibiza, where Wols earned a living photographing the names of revolutionaries, of labor activists, were rapidly etched into his brain.
