I was just giggling as Toke narrated how they met and the sweet things she did well

On Becoming chose to leave my marriage. This is how some wives end up dying in their husband's hands. Was this meant to be a memoir or something like that cos it feels like it shed light only on the On Becoming side of her life I felt like punching Toke a couple of times while reading this book because, Oh My God!

Her sisters and cousins did. According to Toke, she was inspired to write the book
