I would recommend this book to whoever who likes comedy and funny books, from any age, because they would really enjoy it. You better not drop me. This was, literally, laugh out loud funny. Gary is a nervous wreck on the night of the talent competition. PW praised the "strong, realistic characterization" in this "gracefully told story" of a compulsive comic, the scourge of his seventh-grade class. He has a relatively small list of titles to his credit, and the care he takes with each is evident as they are easily among the highest quality produced in our time. I did like that bit of naughtiness. Buy these selected items together. This item: Small Steps Holes Series. This author really does know kids and how they work.
