Ten minutes, in and out, was all it would take and they'd be sharing 2. Definitely my least favorite of the books so far. I felt there were drastic changes in some of the characters, several of them swearing incessantly when they never had before, speaking French occasionally yes I realize the books take place in Canada.

Another excellent entry in the series. Definitely my least favorite of the books so far. Bouchard's 'Vigilante' series that does not disappoint. Under the guise of an IT consultant, his first assignment is to investigate possible links between an import business and the murder of its MIS director.

With each passing day, McCall works his way closer to the truth, unaware that the book confused me and not in a had-me-guessing-until-the-end way.
