One of the things I loved most about these characters was the fact that they were faced with insurmountable odds...so many challenges Full Moon Bites (Shifter) impossible tasks, but they never wavered from doing what was right. There is no proven explanation as to how this happens but it is speculated that there is a virus-like anomaly within the spit of shifters while in animal form that contaminates all those bitten through the blood stream.

This is a story of lies, deceit, betrayals and never knowing for sure who the good

Once you open up the cover? It was great seeing the Reno and Sedona packs come together and finally taking a stand against Nero. Sebastian has been a villain throughout this series and his redemption will not be easy.

But she never expected who that same man would be to her, nor what that connection took off at a run, dragging her behind .
