You do not jump right into Chihuahua obedience training by starting with the hard stuff. Chihuahuas are very motivated and willing to please but can be stubborn.

These are starting points and each rule can be researched in more. This also tells you that your training efforts have been successful. Throughout this article I use the term dog owner to define the person's primarily in charge of a dog. You should have fun while training your Chihuahua.

They also live in an environment where they make up their own rules because the if for some reason you were set on giving them a fright, you may likely figure a way to do that as. My dog should behave because he wants to please me.
