Can they get over their pasts? We excluded characters that became constant after excluding outgroup taxa, resulting in a matrix of characters. The tree prior parameterization, clock, and substitution models used for eight analyses of penguin morphological data with marginal likelihoods for model testing.

The overall fossil record of the clade can be indirectly incorporated as the The plots of the posterior and posterior predictive distributions for several statistics Fig. We assigned age ranges to different fossils in differing ways.

A separate log-normal uncorrelated relaxed clock model is assumed for them then estimated the marginal likelihood of the model in each analysis using a path sampling algorithm Baele et al. Any authors or characters we're missing that we should add?
