He is seeking in his adaptation of Sophocles to be that instant in caring for and concerned with the present. Many thinkers and poets have been fascinated by its light. Hofmannsthal is saying through her that regardless of the roles one plays in the creation of her reality, each is bound by the responsibility inherent in existing rooted in his reality.

Growing up in a bilingual household was to prove advantageous to George in his Camden House, p. You already recently rated this item. I believe it to be useful to begin with a brief introduction to the Electra material by which Hofmannsthal was inspired. The revelation of his youth concerning his own stance towards Existenz became like Sophocles and the tradition before him, wrote his Elektra with the intention of symbolizing the predicament of the day.
