Same kind of thing happens here at Blind Lake with the government suppressing what is going on and sealing the facility. Pieces of this one will be with me for a long time. And it is for this reason that Blind Lake has the most emotional impact of all of them. Everything in the book was so overly dramatic; small mysteries and events are built up almost as much as the major stuff. Blind Lake is a partially enjoyable sci-fi-mystery-thriller with little depth and no payoff. Long before I finished reading, this had become an instant favorite. Want to Read Currently Reading Read. The end is not worth the journey. Everything is so over the top. One night, the stars go .
