That is, theology is inevitably conditioned by our understanding of the world, just as it conditions that same understanding. Space, unfortunately, disallows further elaboration, but a few other issues deserve a mention. Instead, I want to note that he takes head on three of the thorny and fascinating issues that confront theology, the "antinomies" of divine foreknowledge, divine predestination, and divine timelessness. WanttoReadsaving... With all of these caveats in place, however, there is much that we can learn from this book. Thus, to preserve this epistemic privilege of believers with respect to God, Torrance thinks he needs to emphasize the essential identity between the ontic and the economical Trinity. Kendall Collins marked it as to-read Jul 14, Herightlyemphasizestheneedforthesubjectmatteroftheologytonormouru is in the application of the mind toward contemplation of the ultimately incomprehensible Trinity that godliness comes about, as shown in the articulation of the earliest creedal statements of the church.
