So this year I was actually excited when I got my handson I never thought I would It did speak to me as a foreigner living in a different country. A tender story about a young African refugee to America struggling to not only learn our strange language, customs and changing patterns, but also cope with a bitter Minnesota Home of the Brave, the violent deaths of his nuclear family and growing up in a foreign country. Sep 30, Kate rated
