Whenever she does anything, the thoughts from around her just seep in, and she can't do much about it. The plot was wonderfully juicy and ripe with thrilling action scenes, and bubbling romance on the surface.

This second book ends mid-story forcing you to purchase the next in the series! This novel definitely gets 5 stars!! She longs for the time when she can be free to make her own decisions but continues to go through the motions of life until something happens that changes . So...what about the plot? Doctors have steadily got better at saving patients with catastrophic injuries, though it remains much easier to restart a heart than restore a brain.
